PINOT NOIR VULKAN

Vintage: 2020

Grape variety: 100% Pinot Noir

Designation: Alto Adige DOC

Place of cultivation: Renon

Elevation: 800m

Soil: sandy and clayey porphyry

Color & bouquet: This wine has a bright ruby-red hue with lighter edges. It has a pleasant intensity, deep undertones of red strawberry compote, raspberry, and black current.

Flavor: This is a dry wine, displays moderate tannins, and slightly mineral yet juicy nuances. It is characterized by its intensity and delicate, smokey, vegetable note with traces of dark chocolate. It has a multi-faceted structure, with a berry-like and elegant bouquet and floral notes. It has a pronounced finish, with a slightly nutty flavor. The alcohol is well integrated and balanced.

Character: This wine has a harmonious structure, with noticeable tannins. It represents a successful balance of robust body and intensive flavors. On the palate, it's refined, fresh, and pleasant.

Food pairings: This wine is the perfect accompaniment to game and meat dishes. It also pairs well with slightly pungent cheeses.
